

TECHGirls

Apply to become a TechGirl to learn technology and leadership skills through an intensive four-week exchange program in the United States in summer 2022*

What is TechGirls?

TechGirls is an international summer exchange program designed to empower and inspire young girls from Central and Southeast Asia, East Asia and Pacific, Europe and Eurasia, Middle East, North Africa Sub-Saharan Africa, and Western Hemisphere to pursue careers in science and technology.

Who should apply? If you...

- Are a girl between the ages of 15-17 from one of the following countries: Albania, Algeria, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Cambodia, Cameroon, Costa Rica, Cyprus, Egypt, Fiji, Greece, Honduras, Indonesia, Jordan, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Kyrgyzstan, Lebanon, Kosovo, Mongolia, Montenegro, Morocco, Nigeria, Pakistan, Palestinian Territories, Rwanda, South Africa, Suriname, Taiwan, Tajikistan, Tunisia, Turkey, Turkmenistan, United States, Uzbekistan, and Vietnam.
- Have demonstrated interest in STEM fields and intend to pursue higher education or career in technology.
- Are committed to completing a follow-on project
- Have at least one semester of secondary school remaining after the program

APPLY ONLINE:
techgirlsglobal.org

APPLICATION DEADLINE:
JANUARY 15, 2022

TechGirls is an initiative by the US Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, and administered by Legacy International.

*Plans subject to change to ensure the safety and health of participants and staff.

